

LOVE IS A MANY SPLENDORED THING

Just For You

I'm back, I'm back. Now, we were singing together in this interlude on the camera, we were singing together...

I'll be loving you, always
With a love that's true, always
When the things you plan need a helping hand I will understand, always Days may not be fair, always That's when I'll be there, always
Not for just an hour
Nor for just a day
Not for just a year
But always

Many of you now in the whole idea that Jesus is appearing all over this continuum are expressing miraculous stories that you're telling about each other, where suddenly those who were suffering incredible pain and loneliness and despondency have suddenly said, "Wait, I heard a voice, I heard something in my mind speaking to me, I have begun to listen to an instruction I am being given by a whole spirit of energy that has no concern whatsoever about how I appear to be in this faculty of myself."

So this little interlude of love is more directly concerned about the light energy that I am expressing for you in the recognition that suddenly the neighbors, the brothers, the enemies, those we hated and detested were only ideas we had about ourself within our own mind, and now that love is beginning to come directly from the idea that Jesus is going to be with us.

You may be aware that this particular reference of me, my coming here; Jesus and I were together here just this little time ago and he's altering on a continuing basis the frequencies of light by which you are expressing yourself conceptually. The truth of the matter is each time you express yourself, available to you is another you and until you can recognize who that other you is that's actually walking with you on this journey, Jesus will stand here with us.

Remember, I gave you the lamp... And I will lead you to your true Father, Who hath need of you, as I do. Your Father loves you. All the world of pain is not His Will. Forgive your self the thought He wanted this for you. Look. You cannot understand how much your Father loves you, you cannot understand how much your Father, the journey that we are now accomplishing, really loves you, for there is no parallel in your experience of the world to help you understand it. Listen with me. There is nothing on earth with which it can compare, and nothing you have ever felt apart from Him resembles it ever so faintly.

Resembles it even ever so faintly; my, that was beautiful, not even particularly. So the journey under which we are going to undertake the idea of a new reflection of light, being determined now by our recognition of each other, in a particular sense, was sort of a condensed idea of a private association within your own mind. Shall we share why? The momentum of the conversion of your mind is inevitably going to come from the seed by which you are recognizing yourself.

For many of us as the energy of love begins to increase in intensity, we find it difficult to verify how we can be feeling so much love and joy when there doesn't seem to be any reason as we peer out into this world and see all of the pain, death and tragedy going on around us, that the other world lives with us at this moment and is offering us continuing conversions of what we want to see in our mind. On this last journey, which lasted that cycle of time, we began to meet more and more who have decided to undertake with us the inevitability that the journey that could be accomplished by leaving this association of light and journeying out into the universe was indeed ours to make.

Thanks for putting up with my efforts to show you the joy I feel in expressing in a script, my determination that I am going to be with you always, with absolutely no regard to how I appear to be in this factoring of my own mind. Shall we say why? We're sharing together individually, in what appears to be our body formulation, that we've been searching outside of ourselves for an answer to the problem that besets us in the idea that we seem to go through cycles of time within our own mind in which the evidence for which we are searching dissipates somehow and we begin to lose the love that we had, and we're told that that's the nature of things.

My savior Jesus, from the time he came into this cycle said, "This is not the nature of things. You are whole and you are perfect as you were created." And that certainty is what "for always" means; that certainty there in that moment of joy was a whole conversion of your mind in what you thought you were.

Let me express, in case the opportunity doesn't arise again, because many of you are leaving this cycle of time all together, I want to say how very grateful I am of the perseverance that once he flashed into your mind as he has with so many of us, when we couldn't find him anymore some of us lost confidence in the idea that he was there. He was always there. But there were moments in us when we became perhaps frightened of the light that suddenly began to ascend or descend onto us in these alternatives, but he is right here and he is right now and he's sharing his togetherness, togetherness with each other.

Those of us who are now in this procedure in this worldly endeavor are beginning to spot ourselves in recognition of the idea of our mind. Thank you for that. Yes, I see that you just had a glimpse of a light; this is beautiful. The glimpse of the light that we are sharing is not coming from our bodies. Shall we share why? The original light of our body formulation was brought with us when we came into this cycle of time, but it's been dimmed and weakened by the idea that the reflections of space/time light that we've been getting do not hold the entirety of the power of mind, power of mind that you just discovered in our relationship with each other.

The whole basis of the idea, once you decide to change your mind, is to always offer to God, to the Holy Spirit, the realization that all the decisions you've been making about yourself are not really how God is directing you. The love of God for you is not concerned about your capacity to decide outcomes that you want within your own mind. Listen, listen to this prayer, listen:

Father, I need but look upon all things that seem to hurt me, and with perfect certainty assure myself, "God wills that I be saved from this," and merely watch them disappear. I need but keep in mind my Father's Will for me is only happiness, to find that only happiness has come to me. And I need but remember that God's Love surrounds His Son and keeps his sinlessness forever perfect, to be sure that I am saved and safe forever in His Arms. I am the Son He loves. And I am saved because God in His mercy wills it so.

Once more, thanks for all the love that you've given me because I love you and the aspects by which we are viewing each other have allowed me to say to you, "I'll do anything in the universe." And I mean this literally. I'll do anything once I begin to see how inevitable it's going to be that there's another place and time that is available to me in this cycle of time. Because God loves us, each and everyone. And we can say together, "God bless us, everyone." And I'll be seeing you in just a moment as you flashed out of here. You may be getting a call any moment now to take a good solid look at the idea that he's back in this sequence of time. We've had enough ideas of crucifixion; suddenly he's here in resurrection, in resurrection, in resurrection of your mind.

Excerpts from

Love Is A Many Splendored Thing

Episode I – Just For You

with The Master Teacher of A Course In Miracles